Plaintiff,

CIVIL NO.: _____

v.

STELLAR RECOVERY, INC.,

Defendant.

COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

---

JURISDICTION

1. Jurisdiction of this Court arises under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1692k(d), and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367 for pendent state law claims.
2. This action arises out of Defendant's violations of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq. ("FDCPA").
3. Venue is proper in this district because the acts and transactions occurred in this district, Plaintiff resides in this district, and Defendant transacts business in this district.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Richard Wilson (hereinafter "Plaintiff"), is a natural person residing in the County of Washington, State of Minnesota, and is a "consumer" as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(3).

5. Defendant Stellar Recovery, Inc. (hereinafter “Defendant”), is a collection agency operating from an address of 1845 Highway 93 South, Suite 310 Kalispell, MT 59901 and is a “debt collector” as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(6).

FACTUAL SUMMARY

6. Sometime prior to 2010, upon information and belief, Plaintiff incurred a financial obligation that upon information and belief was primarily for personal, family or household purposes, and is therefore a “debt” as that term is defined by 15 U.S.C. § 1692a(5).
7. Defendant contacted a third party, Katy Ashby, with regard to this debt. Although Ms. Ashby is not in any way associated with the debt, Defendant discussed with Ms. Ashby the amount of the debt, disclosed the original creditor and settlement options available to Plaintiff regarding the debt. Defendant further stated to Ms. Ashby that it was attempting to collect a debt from Plaintiff.
8. The conduct of Defendant is a violation of the FDCPA, including but not limited to 15 U.S.C. §§ 1692b(2), 1692d, and 1692f.

Respondeat Superior Liability

9. The acts and omissions of Defendant, and/or the other debt collectors employed as agents by Defendant who communicated with Plaintiff- further described herein- were committed within the time and space limits of their agency relationship with their principal, Defendant.

10. The acts and omissions by Defendant and/or these other debt collectors were incidental to, or of the same general nature as, the responsibilities these agents were authorized to perform by Defendant in collecting consumer debts.
11. By committing these acts and omissions against Plaintiff, Defendant and these other debt collectors were motivated to benefit their principal, Defendant.
12. Defendant is therefore liable to Plaintiff through the Doctrine of Respondeat Superior for the intentional and negligent acts, errors, and omissions done in violation of federal law by its collection employees, including but not limited to violations of the FDCPA and Minnesota law, in their attempts to collect this debt from Plaintiff.

Summary
